AWARENESS

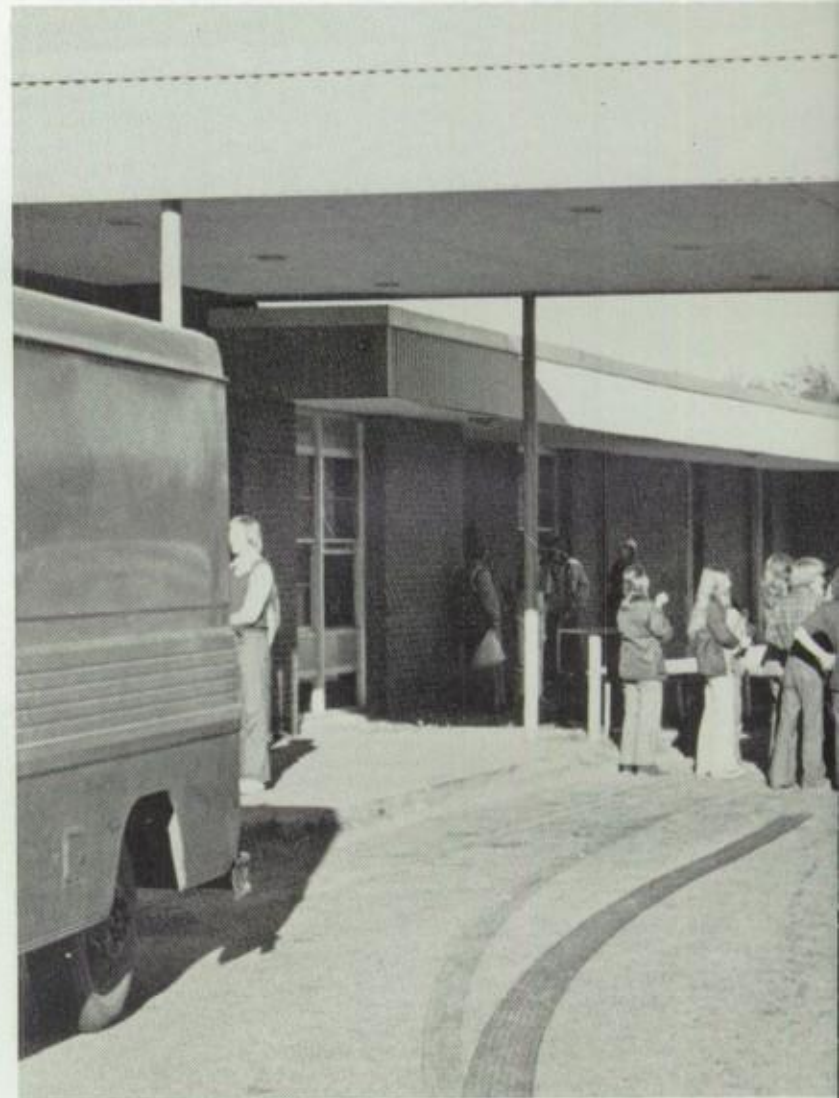

PAST / PRESENT / FUTURE

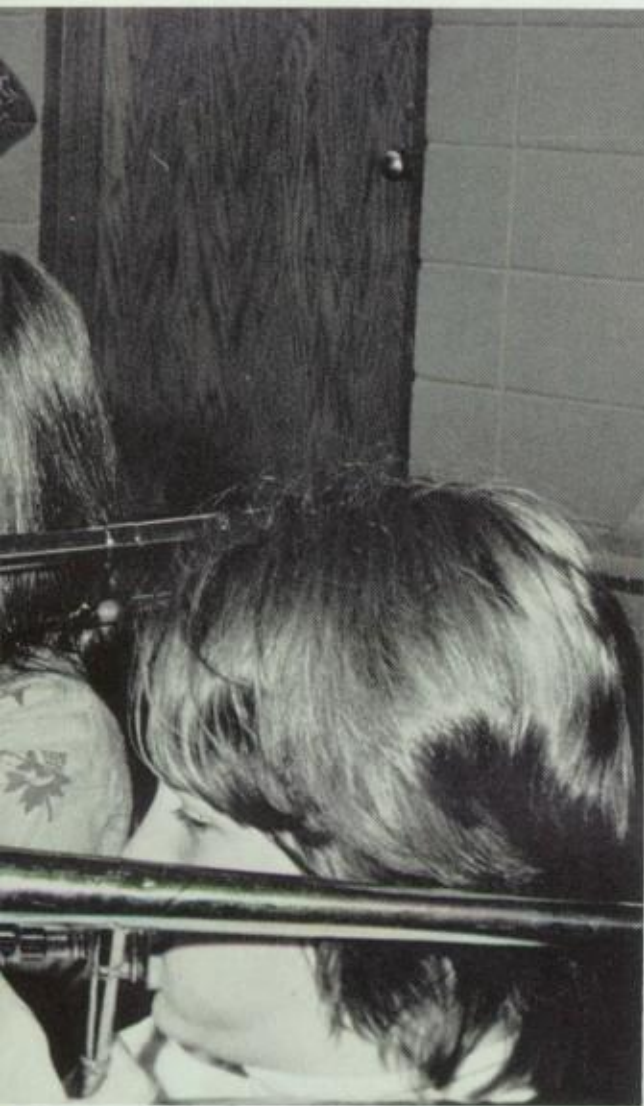

Victory, union, faith, identity, time,
The indissoluble compacts, riches, mystery,
Eternal progress, the kosmos, and the modern reports.

This then is life,
Here is what has come to the surface
after so many throes and convulsion

See, vast trackless spaces,
As in a dream they change,
they swiftly fill,

Countless masses debouch upon them,
They are now cover'd with the foremost people, arts, institutions, known.

How curious! How real!
Underfoot the divine soil, overhead the sun.

See revolving globe,
The ancestor — continents away group'd
together,
The present and future continents north and south, with the isthmus between.

Freshman Girl Reigns Again

Robin Suttlemyre, first runner-up; Lori Queen, Miss St. Stephens; Melanie Martin, second runner-up; and Linda Goforth, third runner-up.

Lori wears her new crown proudly.

This year's pageant proved to be one of the most colorful yet. The theme was "Colour My World" as seventy-one lovely girls competed for the title of Miss St. Stephens. After a long period of deliberation, judges chose Lori Queen as the new queen. Runners-up were Robin Suttlemyre, Melanie Martin, and Linda Goforth. The mistress of ceremonies, Marcia Burton, sang a special song for entertainment. The pageant was sponsored by the PTA and directed by Mrs. Violet Kale. It was a very exciting and memorable event for everyone.

Mandy Teague was chosen Miss Congeniality.

Eleven smiling girls give the judges a last look.

The judges discuss their choice before announcing a winner.

Lynne Triplett entertains the audience with a modern dance performance.

Marcia Burton sings "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

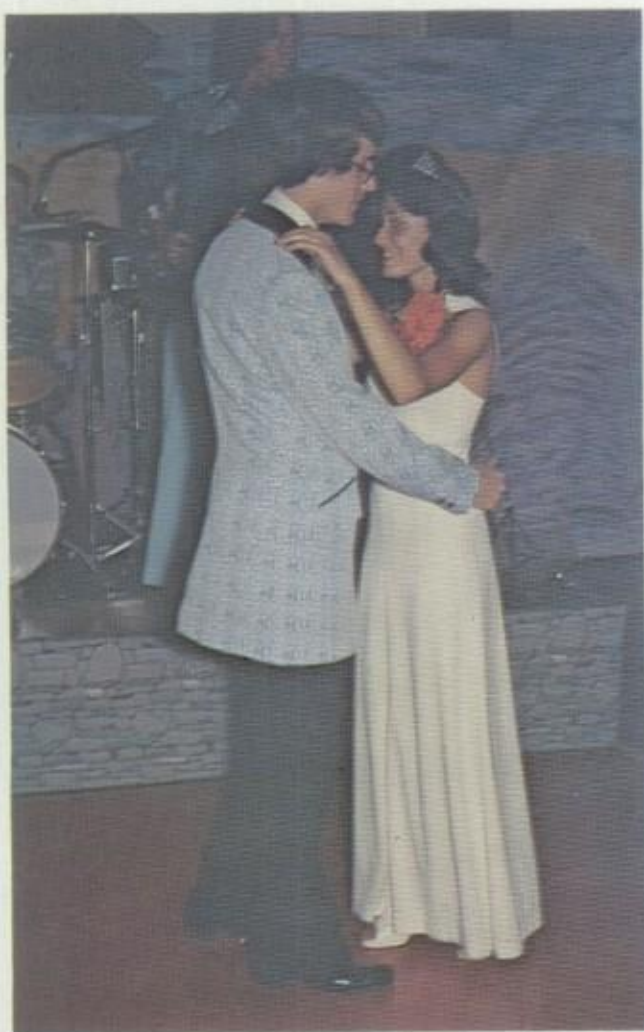

The Wild West Lives Again

Prom Queen Robin Suttlemyre and attendants Dana Norris, Robin Hovis, Mary Bolick, and Mindy Martin.

Mrs. Vaught accepts her roses with a smile.

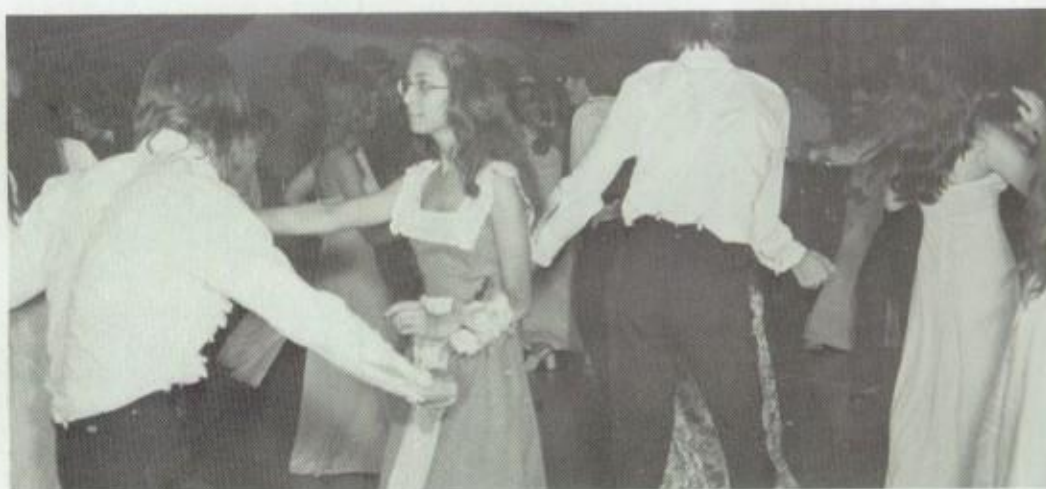

David Haynes dances with the new queen.

Jesse James, Billy the Kid, Marshall Dillon, and can-can dancers were all a part of the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom. The juniors chose "The Wild, Wild West" as their theme.

The action was begun in the huge "covered wagon" by masters of ceremony Kevin Niewulis and Ronald Gaddy. The band, "Hits and Miscellaneous," set the rhythm as the floor filled with dancers.

Sophomore waiters and waitresses displayed their own talents by a square dance performance. The Junior Chorus then provided more entertainment with such selections as "Buttons and Bows" and "Sweet Baby James."

The highlight of the evening came with the crowning of the Prom Queen, Miss Robin Suttlemyre.

The band set the mood for some fast dancing.

Sophomore waiters and waitresses serve food dressed in western outfits.

Mr. Bost enjoys a slow dance . . .

. . . and then a fast one.

These students seem to be having a good time.

"Today's Dream is Tomorrow's Future"

Excitement was obvious as Seniors filed into the gym on graduation night. The class was led by Chief Junior Marshall Mike Laffon.

Two students waiting to enter the gym spend the time exchanging jokes and memories with Mr. Hilton.

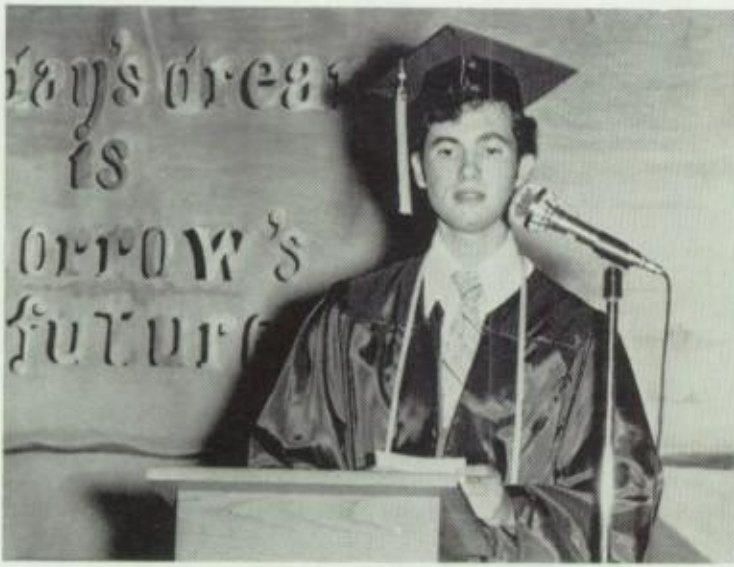

The sea of mortarboards does not hide their solemn stances and nervous smiles.

"Today's Dream is Tomorrow's Future" was the motto for the graduating class of 1975. After last good-byes and warm embraces, seniors will go their separate ways. Although graduation night is a sad time, it also marks the beginning of a new life for the graduates. Some will continue their education, and others will seek employment; all will have the opportunity to make new friends and share new experiences.

After graduation exercises, many members of the class left for a vacation at the beach. With plans for a five-year reunion still fresh in their minds, they were looking forward to the future.

Mr. Tallman extends congratulations, another of his many functions at school.

Mike Propst was the Valedictorian.

Jeff Reeves served as Salutatorian.

Junior Marshals were Greg Bolick, Randy Stewart, Joel Ellington, Scott Parsons, Gaye Austin, Renae Eckard, Karen Barber, Mike Laffon, Mindy Martin, Cheryl Richards, and Anne Jones.

Time to get a picture of that long-awaited diploma!

Outside, graduates talk to friends and teachers before going their separate ways.

Mindy Martin Visits The Caribbean

This is the James Bynoe family whom Mindy stayed with while in the West Indies.

The Bajan people celebrate the harvest of sugar cane.

St. Stephens High School was honored last April when Miss Mindy Martin was chosen as a foreign exchange student. Mindy spent ten weeks in the Caribbean on the beautiful island of Barbados, West Indies. She stayed with the James Bynoe Family and was kept company by Patricia and Barry Bynoe.

Mindy was very pleased to be able to go and learn of another way of life other than our own. She was sad to leave her new acquaintances but happy to reunite with her family and friends.

Mindy and her friends enjoy a cruise on the Caribbean.

This beach was Mindy's favorite place to picnic and swim.

Bloodmobile's Second Visit Successful

Coach Rose looks a little nervous as he gives blood.

Mr. Bost sets a good example as he signs up to donate.

Joe Hill enjoys a snack after giving blood.

The Bloodmobile visited St. Stephens on Feb. 13. The day proved to be a successful one as SSHS contributed 216 pints of blood.

Response to the blood give-in was tremendous. Although seventeen-year-olds had to have parental consent to give blood, their response was almost as large as the eighteen-year-olds.

The Bloodmobile proved once again that St. Stephens students are ready and willing to give help whenever it is needed.

Magazine Sales Bring in Over $19,000

Mr. Dave Abernathy describes the rules, conditions, and, best of all, the prizes involved in magazine sales.

This year's magazine sales campaign proved to be the most successful one in the history of St. Stephens. The goal of $18,000 was reached and even surpassed with an overall total of $19,200. Ms. Karen Eades' sophomore homeroom took first place with a total of over $1,000. They were treated to a luncheon at Mull's Restaurant. Top salesman was Tim Hollar with $345. Prizes were also awarded to many other students for their effort. Among the prizes were stuffed animals, radios, clocks, and posters. Also, a few lucky people were visited by the "Money Man."

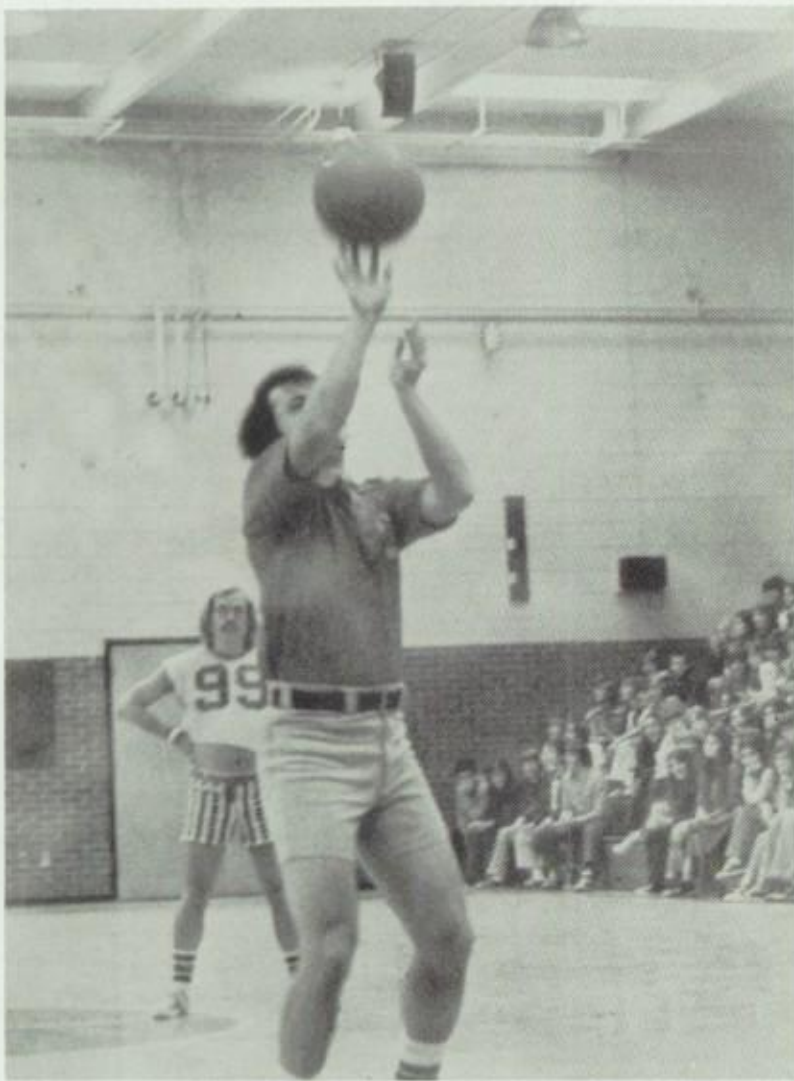

Money raised from this project is used to aid the Athletic Department, Jr.-Sr. Prom, cheerleaders and clubs.

Poor Mr. Jones lost his sales challenge.

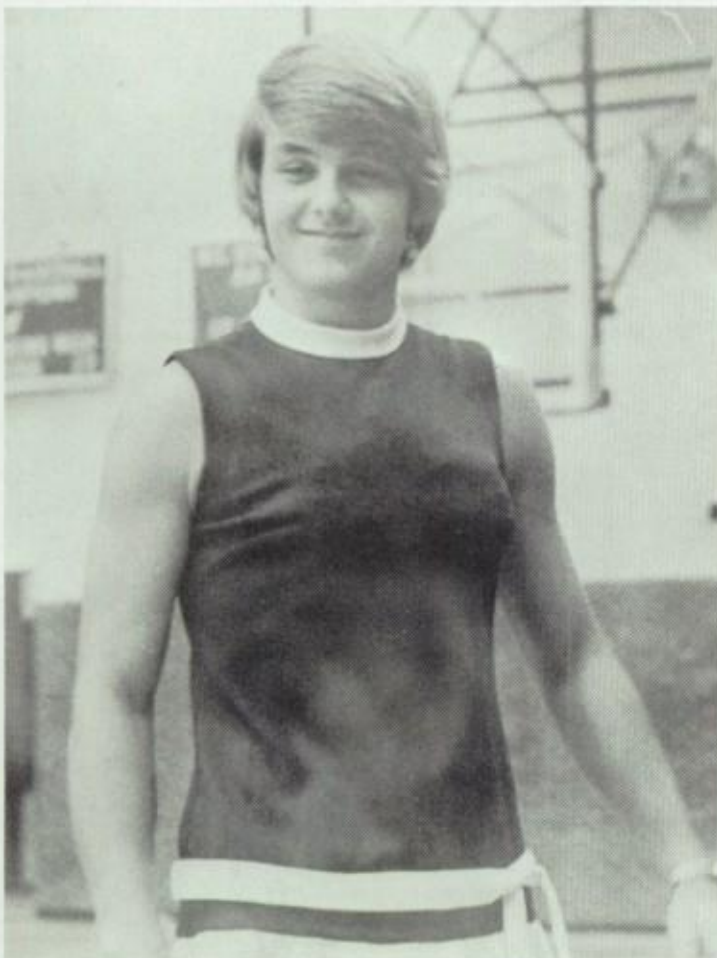

Mrs. Daughton loves that tall, good-looking Spanish buzzard.

Mr. Hilton carefully aims a foul shot which could possibly mean the difference between winning and losing.

"Eager" Eades looks a bit awkward after hitting the volleyball to the opposing girls.

Ronald Gaddy proudly sports his attire, the result of losing a challenge to the juniors.

Joe Hill takes quick aim for a jump shot during the student-faculty basketball game held after the close of the sales campaign.

SSHS Gets A Glimpse of Greece

The Laws Family: Mr. Laws, Fofie, Susie, Mrs. Laws, Debbie, and "Buffy."

Fofie seems to enjoy the American way of drying hair.

Fofie and Susie enjoy a basketball game.

Fofie and Susie spend their afternoon riding bikes.

Fofie and Debbie decide which records they want to hear.

Fofie seems to have caught on well to the game of ping-pong.

Fofie, Debbie, Susie, and Mrs. Laws seem to be having an interesting game of Probe.

Dear Students of St. Stephens,

As you already know, I am Fofie Economou from Greece. I arrived on 22nd of August and immediately I found everybody friendly in Hickory area.

I am glad that I had this opportunity to come in your country and experience your lifestyle. I did not find it hard to adapt to your way.

At first I had to get used to the food, which did not take long since I gained a lot of weight.

The people here are different in some ways; for instance in Greece we have a lot of different culture, and a different style of life.

I have enjoyed my stay in the United States. I have learned a lot of your culture and I met a lot of nice people who gave me a good impression of America. This experience will be something marvelous for my rest life.

Love,

Fofie Economou

Indian Homecoming Displays "Spirit of '76"

Homecoming Queen Dana Norris and her court—Fofie Economou, Tia Rullman, and Mindy Martin.

Representatives watch the game with eager faces.

The "Spirit of '76" served as the theme for the 1975 Indian Homecoming. A beautifully decorated float of red, white and blue was the setting behind the Homecoming Queen, Dana Norris. Dana received a bouquet of red roses and kisses from Senior class president Ronald Gaddy and football captains Brent Bumgarner, Jeff Dale, and Sherwin Queen.

Although the game was not victorious, spirit and enthusiasm were high during the dance that was held in the cafeteria after the game. The entertainment was provided by the band "Airborne." It was a night which will long be remembered by everyone.

J.V. Cheerleaders show lots of spirit and enthusiasm by leading the crowd in a cheer.

Drama Club Plans, Produces First Play

David Haynes stresses to the crowd that he has no intentions of letting his daughter marry.

Correct lighting and effective props helped in making the play a big success.

The devil and his assistant come back to claim their last victim.

The St. Stephens student body was delighted this year to witness a dramatic presentation performed by the Drama Club. Parents and students alike sacrificed an hour of "The Waltons" or some other favorite television show and appeared at the new multi-purpose room for the comedy "Rest Assured." To the ecstasy of all, the multi-purpose room was finished and available the day prior to opening night on March 21. The lighting system of this new building and the props helped tremendously in making the play successful. All three performances had an excellent turnout.

Thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Schenk (then Miss Hall) and Mrs. Ogle and many talented students, "Rest Assured" was received with great enthusiasm.

American Graffiti Day Brings Back '50's

At the end of American Graffiti Day, these students enjoy each other's company and the memories of the day.

The Bobby Sox 50's came alive once again when the traditional Sadie Hawkins Day was switched to American Graffiti Day. The girls were clad in long skirts, sweaters or blouses, bobby sox and black and white saddle oxfords. They also sported bright red lips and cheeks. The boys wore tight jeans, white T-shirts and some even wore Mr. Cool sunglasses. Let's not forget the coolest thing about the guys, that greasy slicked-back hair.

For our entertainment during the day we had a wild '50's assembly. Many clubs acted out skits in which the kids portrayed the fabulous fifties.

The day was thoroughly enjoyed by both faculty and students. It is a day we will all look back on with fond memories for a long time to come.

VICA Club Holds Christmas Dance

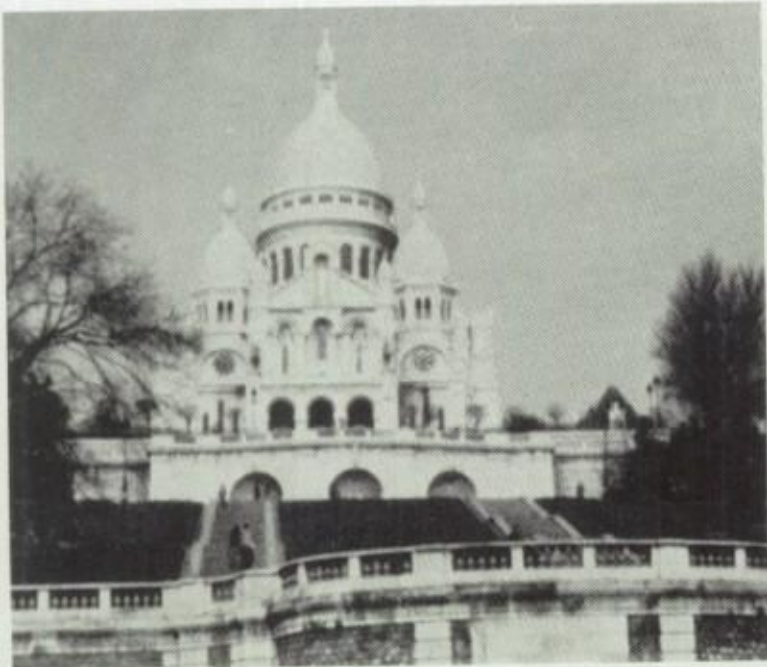

On the evening of December 18, 1975, the annual Christmas Dance was held in the school cafeteria. The dance was sponsored by the VICA Club, and music was provided by "Airborne." The dancers enjoyed this festive occasion amidst the traditional streamers of bright red and green. Perhaps the best part of the evening was getting together with friends at such a special time of year.

Students come alive to the music of "Airborne."

These girls work hard on final preparations.

French Students Have A "Très Bon" Trip

The beauty of Sacre Coeur majestically overlooks Paris.

These beautiful paintings were done by painters on "Artists Square."

Sunday, November 22, 1975, proved to be a unique and enlightening experience for twelve St. Stephens High School students and their chaperone, Mrs. Burleson. That day marked the beginning of their eight-day stay in Paris. While there, they saw such landmarks as the Louvre, the Eiffel Tower, and Notre Dame Cathedral, and enjoyed a sightseeing tour of Paris.

Although they were somewhat tired after a plane delay in New York, everyone enjoyed the trip and found it very educational. The travelers were glad to be home, but each hopes to return to France someday.

The team anxiously awaits the result of the coin toss.

The Varsity Football team had a winning season again this year with a record of six wins and four losses. Even though the team had a good season, they were not satisfied with their record. The coaches, Ed Tallman and George Nazarovitch, feel that even though they are losing a lot of seniors, they can look forward to gaining players from the J.V. team.

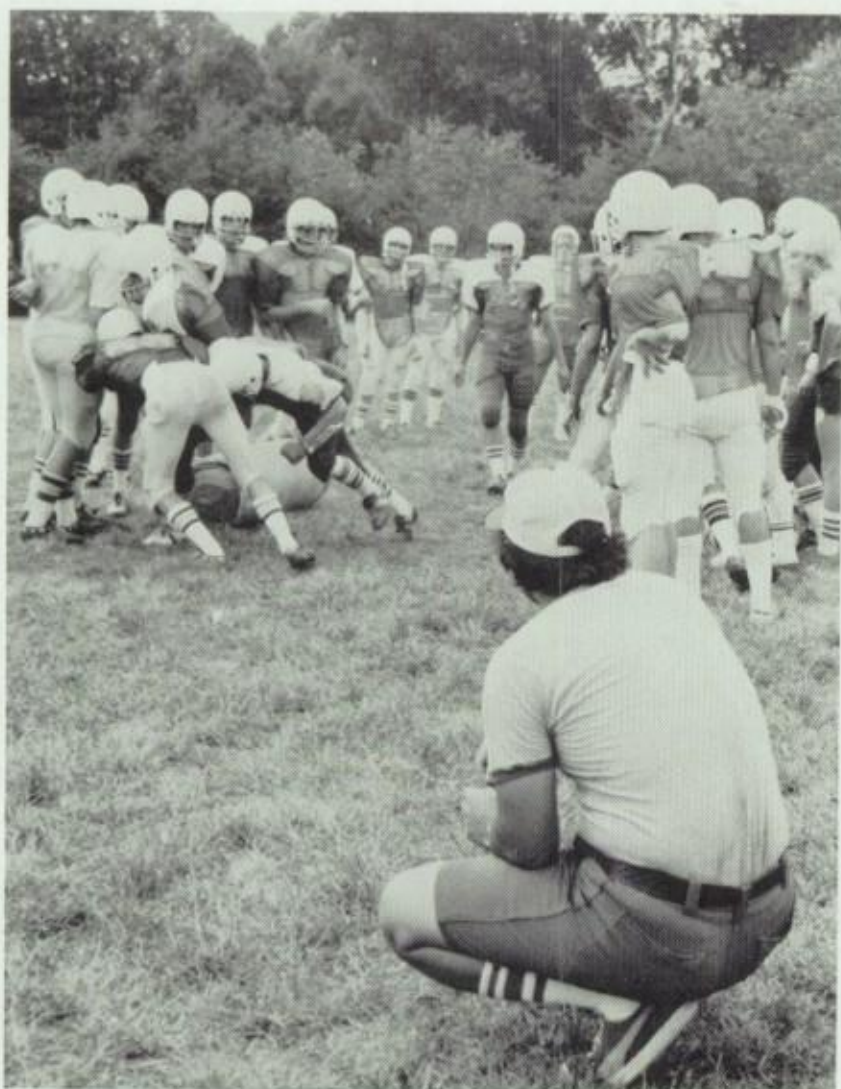

Five players attained All-Conference recognition. They were Danny Eggers, a running back; Randy Sipe, an offensive tackle; Brent Bumgarner, an offensive guard; Jeff Dale, a middle guard; and Chuck Justice, a defensive guard. All five of these young men are outstanding athletes and fine students.

The coaches this year were Ed Tallman and George Nazarovitch.

M. Foust and K. Robinson, the co-captains, win the toss and elect to receive.

The St. Stephens Junior Varsity team had an excellent season this year. The coaches, Marty Curtis and Ken Simmons, agreed that the 9-1 record was not the product of any one single outstanding player, but that of a group of fine athletes. The team captains, sophomores Mark Foust and Kevin Robinson, helped to spur the team to the victories.

Awaiting the referee's decision, the J.V. Indians rest on one knee. Neither they nor the fans, though, rested much en route to a 9-1 record.

Good defense is the key to victory.

Randy Bolick scores a touchdown.

J. Dale's ability to jump high was a real asset to the team in scoring strategy.

After a year of learning and experience, the Indians turned out a fair season. The team's seven returning players, along with the others on the squad, discovered that teamwork was again the key to success. The boys formed a balanced team, with Jeff Dale, Kevin Niewulis, Randall Davis, and Ronald Gaddy battling for rebounds; and Mark Poole and Ray Bowman pumping in points from the outside. Next year, Coach Frye will face a rebuilding situation, with eight players bringing back some experience.

The Lady Indians came up with a respectable record this year, in spite of a few bad breaks. The team consisted mainly of upperclassmen, but the freshmen were well represented by Leisa Norris, a guard. The girls had a somewhat shaky start, but progressed steadily through the season. Co-Captain Patty Sigmon helped keep the Indians rolling by being the leading scorer for the team.

The outlook for next season is a bit brighter, since Coach Hilton expects to have nine players returning.

Nancy Cornwell looks for someone to pass to, as she works the ball inside.

Inexperience Contributes to 5-15 Record

The lack of experience really hurt the junior varsity boys this season. Although the team of five sophomores and ten freshmen did not produce an astonishing record, Coach Thomas will have some experienced players next season. The J.V. Indians were led by high scorer Richard Drake. They are hoping to better their record next year.

Stan Clontz pumps in two points for the J.V. team.

The J.V. Girls finished the year 13 and 7 after a good start at the first of the season. The girls were led by Lisa Davis, Donna Bumgarner, and Lisa Herman in scoring and by Maria Speed in rebounding. With the majority of the team being freshmen, the J.V. Girls have the potential for a good upcoming season.

Donna Bumgarner goes up for two against Newton-Conover. Teammates M. Speed and L. Davis get set for the rebound.

Brent Bumgarner prepares for a quick pin.

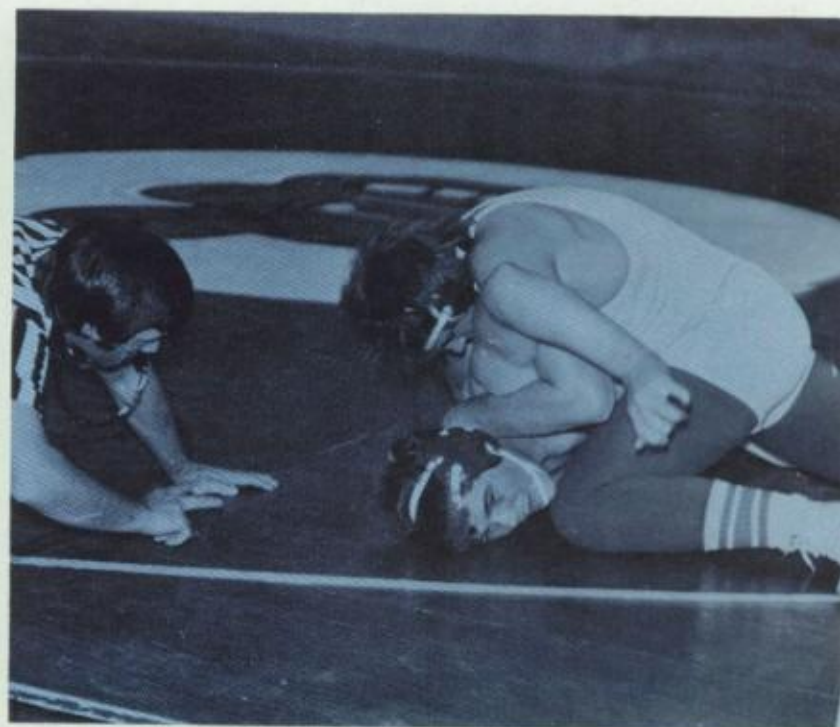

The Wrestling team had an outstanding season this year, going undefeated in the conference and compiling a 17-1 record overall. It was the first time in school history that the wrestlers were undefeated in conference competition. Results were also excellent in the Conference Tournament, where four firsts, four seconds, and four thirds were won by Indian wrestlers. This gave the St. Stephens team the most overall points and the tournament victory.

George Nazarovitch, coach of the team, is reportedly looking forward to another exciting season next winter. Although ten of this year's thirteen-man wrestling squad were seniors, there are many good sophomores and juniors coming up in the ranks to take their places.

Winning the toss for the team, Brent chooses odd matches.

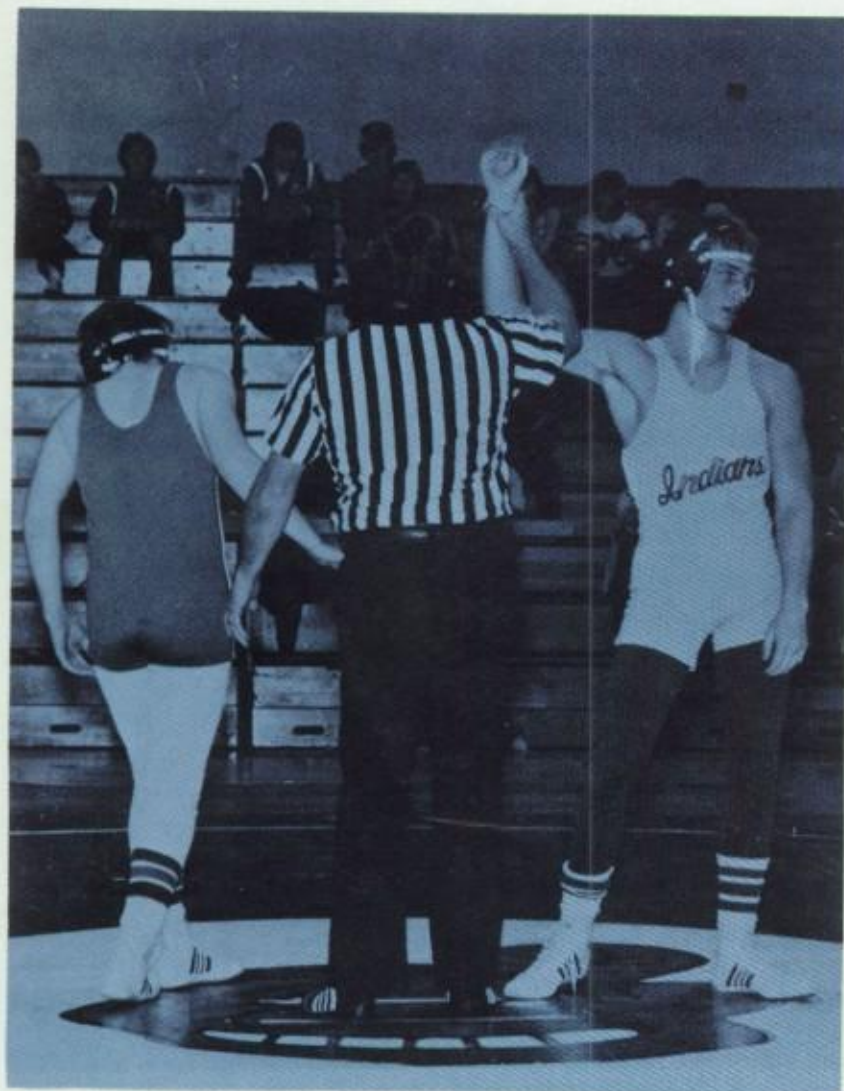

His opponent's strained look indicates Mark's tight grip.

In the 1975 golf season, the conference teams played under a new format of four team matches. This system allows the golfers to be paired with a member of each of three different school teams, making a more competitive round.

St. Stephens had a young golf team with much determination and potential. The team, coached by Mr. Andrew, used Rock Barn Club of Golf as a home course.

Returning lettermen, J. Little and T. Gabriel, received stars, with L. Hughes receiving a star and the Most Valuable Player award. New lettermen this year were T. Alcon and J. Stewart.

Kim Barger throws her mighty pitch.

Along with the other schools in the Southern District 7, St. Stephens changed its Girls' Softball format to slow pitch this year. Sixty girls tried out for the team; Coach Simmons and his two aides, Miss Drye and Miss Parks, were faced with narrowing that field. Of the twenty-four players that they chose, four made All-Conference: Cathy Cornwell, Patty Sigmon, Kenley Bolick, and Kim Barger. Although the team's record was only six and seven, it was the first one to hand the strong Hickory High team defeat. That important win made the losses bearable.

Patty rounds bases determinedly.

Varsity Baseball Team Takes SD7 Title

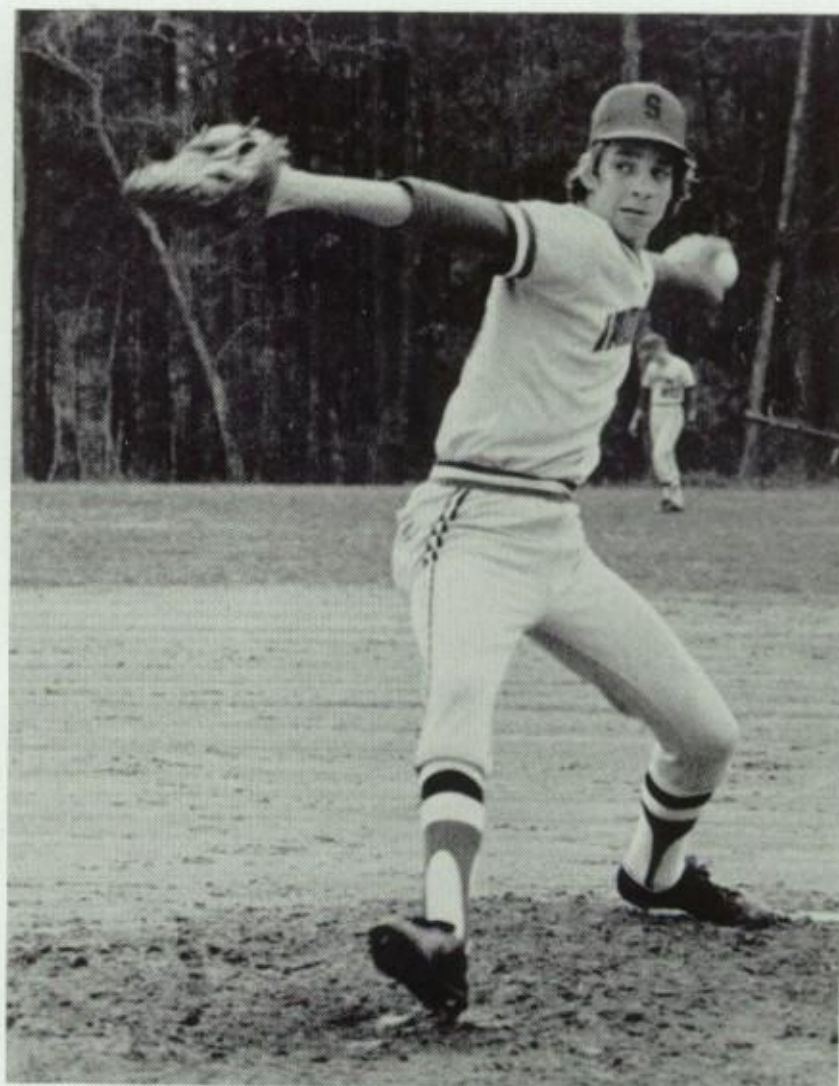

Coach Frye walks among the ranks.

The Indians are number one! Coach Frye, who was voted Coach of the Year in the Southern District Seven, could have easily said that about the baseball team last season.

The seventeen-man team seemed to roll over competition with no trouble, as they chalked up a seventeen and three record. Behind the brilliant pitching of Larry Miller, the Indians took the Southern District Seven 1975 AAA Conference title. With only a few graduated members, the Indians and Coach Frye can look forward to a very promising season.

The Varsity Baseball team was made up of many fine, developing athletes. One of these players waits for the ball to come his way.

St. Stephens Varsity Baseball put five men on the All-Conference Team. They were pitcher Larry Miller, first baseman Tommy Stilley, catcher Brad Lawing, centerfielder Mark Cockerham, and shortstop Danny Eggers. The Indians won the Southern District Seven Conference Championship in an exciting no-hitter game by Larry Miller. After winning the title the Indians went on to win two more play-off games before losing to North Buncombe.

The 1975 Junior Varsity Baseball team lacked experience, but still had a respectable season of six wins and nine losses against tough competition. The team, comprised mainly of freshmen, had impressive victories over rivals Fred T. Foard and Freedom.

A sophomore, Mike Noble, led the team in both hitting and pitching throughout the season. With many of the starters returning, St. Stephens' '76 J.V. Baseball team should be highly competitive.

An event St. Stephens was extremely excellent in was the 880 yard relay. Ray Bowman concentrates on handing Martin Webb the baton.

St. Stephens' Varsity Track team had a fine season. They placed second in the Southern District Seven Pre-Conference meet and third in the Conference meet. Some of the events at the Conference meet which they won were the 220 yard dash, the shot put, and—setting a new conference record—the 880 yard relay race.

Coach Nazarovitch's forty-five trackmen had two new events to train for last season, the pole vault and the triple jump.

With only six seniors gone from the squad, the '76 season should have an even better record.

Future varsity teams are decided on by the quality of the junior varsity. In the case of the cheerleading, the Indians are in good hands. Kim Patton led her squad of three sophomores and five freshmen in a good year of cheering and promoting school spirit at the J.V. ballgames. The hours of practicing were well worth the effort, as the J.V.'s handled their duty of filling in at Homecoming without any trouble at all.

Physical Education Involves Many Students

Coach Nazarovitch gives basketball pointers to these talented physical education students. Eventually, some of these young players will become all-stars.

The physical education classes this year were not simply courses of basketball and football, but much more. The diverse activities in which students were allowed to participate ranged from volleyball and swimming at the beginning of the year to bowling and wrestling later on. This expanded program permits greater use of out-of-school facilities, especially for the advanced classes. Methods of promoting physical fitness have become more innovative and interesting. As a result, response from male and female students has been great.

This year's banquet, just as last year's, consisted of a good meal, conversation among good friends, and in the latter part of the evening, the presentation of letters and trophies for the various sports. Not only did the athletes participate in this program; other guests included coaches, cheerleading squads and their supervisors, and various escorts.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council Very Active at St. Stephens

The Student Council consists of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the entire student body plus presidents from all four individual classes. This group, along with a faculty adviser, meets twice a month.

There are four major functions of the Student Council, and these include reviewing and revising work done by the Student Assembly, drawing up new student body policies, enforcing school regulations, and supervising all student government activities.

This is a hard-working group at our school we can certainly be proud of.

Student Assembly Strives to Improve SSHS

The Student Assembly is an organization that meets on the second week of each month. It consists of a student from each homeroom and the members of the Student Council. When any information is given to Assembly members concerning the activities of the student body, they announce it to their homeroom. Members also take any ideas their homerooms have to the Assembly for discussion.

The Assembly's projects this year were the Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Student Directory, obtaining a juke box for the student center, and the Christmas project of gathering clothes and food for the needy.

The main goal of the Student Assembly is to bring about a togetherness of students and teachers. Another goal is the improving of the school in any way possible.

Student Assembly members prepare clothes and toys for distribution to needy families.

Cathy Kinchloe, Joel Ellington, and Rick Ritchie make plans for the next Beta Club meeting.

The Beta Club at St. Stephens High School is an honorary organization recognizing juniors and seniors who are in the top ten percent of their class. Sound character, good leadership, and academic achievement are just a few of the characteristics required of a Beta Club member.

The club is dedicated to performing service projects for the school. This year the Beta Club made fruit baskets for the Lutheran Home for the elderly over Thanksgiving. They cleaned the student parking lot, and also they planted a "Bicentennial Capsule" which contained memories of the '75-'76 school year. This capsule will be dug up in a future year by future Beta Club members.

Students should certainly be proud of the active Beta Club they have here at St. Stephens.

Quill and Scroll Club Sponsors Banquet

The Quill and Scroll Club is another honorary organization at St. Stephens. This club is comprised of students who have done outstanding work on the Torch, Corona, Impressions, and Radio staffs. Literary talent and journalistic skills are required of Quill and Scroll members, and they must also be in the top third of their class.

The Quill and Scroll club is also a service club. This year the club bought and decorated the school's Christmas tree. They also prepared a display for the school concerning the school's publications. The Quill and Scroll Club joined forces with the Beta Club in order to plant a "Bicentennial Capsule" as another of its service projects.

At the end of the year, the club held a banquet to honor the advisers of the various publication staffs at St. Stephens, and to end another year of hard work for these publications.

The club also sponsors a foster child in Hong Kong.

This club is open to sophomore, junior and senior girls who are willing to work hard for the betterment of their community.

Student American Field Service Assists

Adult Chapter

The efforts of the AFS Club make life in America a little better for Greek exchange student Fofie Economou.

The main goal of the student American Field Service is to assist the Adult AFS Chapter in bringing an exchange student to the St. Stephens community.

The exchange student program, and the Americans Abroad program are two different aspects of AFS. Yet, both programs allow students to experience different customs, languages, and ideas of other countries.

This year, approximately $1450 were needed to finance the exchange student program. In order to raise this money, the AFS club became involved in several fund-raising projects throughout the year.

Biology Club Endeavors to Beautify SSH

Members of the Biology Club this year realize that they must exert themselves a great deal in order to make improvements in our school.

Projects for this club, mainly a service club, include making hanging baskets and terrariums, purchasing plants for the garden, and keeping up the solarium.

By putting in a lot of time and effort, members of the Biology Club will be able to attain each of these goals.

Mr. Simmons does not seem to mind helping these "dedicated" biology students.

The goals and plans of the club are staging a science show for younger students, going on field trips, and relaying the importance of science as a part of our world.

Hospital Work Fun for Health Careers Club

The main purpose of the Health Careers Club is to examine the many career opportunities by studies and visits to area hospitals and medical centers. Members of the club learn to share their interests with others, to become individuals by working as a club, and to be better aware of professional life in the community. The Health Careers Club is open to any student who possesses a genuine interest in the field of health.

French Club Membership Increases Greatly

The purpose of le cercle francais is to promote interest in the culture and language of the French people.

This year saw a large increase in the interest of the French club, through both parents and students. The student membership jumped from twenty-five last year to over seventy members this year. An adult chapter of the St. Stephens French Club was also formed this year.

The club's activities included Christmas caroling in French, preparing a French meal, and visiting ASU for the foreign language day. Guest speakers and a Mardi Gras celebration were also scheduled.

The French adviser, Mrs. Vickie Burleson, and a group of twelve French students went to Paris over the Thanksgiving holidays. The trip was a great experience and benefit to these pupils.

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to encourage all Spanish students into expressing ideas and learning more about Spain. This year, because of Spanish enthusiasm, the club was divided into two groups.

Spanish Club activities this year included car washes, bake sales, and garage sales; all toward an Easter trip to Spain. Christmas activities included caroling in Spanish.

Forensics Class Gives Valuable Experience

Mike Laffon and Karen Barber take notes as Vicki Leonard begins the debate. Dick Wiesler prepares his speech for the round.

Since its beginning four years ago, the forensics program at St. Stephens has become a very important part of school life. Although forensics members meet each day in debate class, most of their work is done outside of school in order to prepare for the many tournaments they enter. Debate, dramatic interpretation, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking are the areas in which forensics team members compete for honors.

The forensics team traveled to several out-of-town tournaments this year. The debate team had a very successful season, as they brought home several trophies to add to the collection.

In debate class, students learn the fundamentals of argumentation and debate, and the importance of public speaking. Mr. Tony Andrew is the team's instructor, adviser, and coach.

Drama Club

This is the second big year the St. Stephens Players (also known as the Drama Club) have been in action. The club broadened students' knowledge and interest in the theater by allowing members to view various theatrical productions in the community. The club planned and produced several one-act plays, along with some children's plays.

The main project this year, however, was to plan and produce a full-length play. Student involvement in this production developed responsibility, co-operation, dramatic ability, artistic talent, and creativity in all who participated.

Mike Laffon and Mrs. Schenk seem amused about the play they are reading.

Club Promotes Art Appreciation

Art Club membership consists mainly of students who are enrolled in the art course at St. Stephens; however, any student who has a genuine interest in art may join the club.

The objectives of the Art Club are to increase students' interests in art, and to expose them to the various forms of art.

This year the Art Club planned and carried out some worthwhile projects to benefit the school. Among these were a project to paint the school sign, and a project to finish decorating all the trash cans at the school. The club also decorated the library at Christmas with a nativity scene. In general, the Art Club made an effort to beautify St. Stephens High School in order to make it a little better for students and teachers.

Art class members enjoy working together on their projects.

Club Members Learn Good Salesmanship

A new club added to St. Stephens' list of student organizations is the Ceramics Club. Members consist mainly of students from the newly formed Ceramics class; however, membership is not restricted to students who take ceramics.

This club not only acquaints students with the techniques of ceramics, but also acquaints them with the business aspects of the course as they sell their own items.

This year the club made Christmas gifts for the faculty, and also sold a number of their products. They displayed their work often at school as well as at the mall in the annual Christmas Bazaar.

Camera Club Members Develop Skills

Teaching students the basic fundamentals of good photography and how to develop clear, distinctive prints are the main objectives of the Camera Club. The members play a vital role in putting together the Corona and Torch by taking a great deal of action photographs.

The Camera Club is not an honorary club, so any junior or senior is able to become a member. The only requirement for joining this club is to be energetic and willing to experiment with their projects.

The journalism class is composed of juniors and seniors who plan to pursue a career in, or at least have an active interest in the field of journalism. The class teaches its members moral responsibility of the press in a free society. Students learn the fundamentals of writing effective news and feature stories, and are encouraged to use these skills on the Torch and Corona.

This year the journalism class published a weekly laboratory newspaper entitled "Smoke Signals." The paper was sold to the student body each week, and it served as a supplement to the Torch, the school's monthly newspaper.

Several students in the journalism class were given the opportunity to write regular news columns to the Hickory Daily Record.

Dale Yoder, Doug Conner, Mark Poole, and Lynn Pope begin layouts for "Smoke Signals."

Radio Club Informs Public of School Life

"Hey, guys, you can't tape the program without another reel for the tape recorder."

The Radio Club is devoted to getting news of what's happening at St. Stephens to the public. Many long hours have been spent putting together a weekly 15 minute radio program, "The Voice of St. Stephens." Monday afternoons were spent assigning articles, and Tuesday afternoons were spent doing the actual taping of the program. The program consisted of news, sports, feature articles, editorials, and critical reviews of music, television shows, and movies. As it is with any public voicing of opinions, "The Voice" had a difficult time on several occasions, but somehow it managed to get back on the track. During Christmas vacation, the two vacant weeks were filled up with two special programs — one dealing with Christmas on an international basis, and one about the similarities between the French and Spanish Clubs here at school. "The Voice of St. Stephens" aired at 6:15 Tuesday evenings over WHKY-AM Radio, to whom the radio staff is grateful.

The editorial staff of the Torch worked hard this year writing countless articles, and then trying to get them turned in before the deadline; all in an effort to publish one Torch per month. By doing so, the staff hoped to give the student body at St. Stephens the latest on all school-related events.

Besides the regular monthly editions, the Torch staff planned to put out special editions for Halloween, Christmas, and possibly the Bicentennial.

Shari Lafone assigns homerooms to Torch business staff members.

Business Staff Helps Finance Yearbook

Patricia Eckard and Treva Pope check their layouts for Corona ads.

Corona Business Staff members keep very busy throughout the school year soliciting advertisements to help finance the school yearbook. Although the number of advertisements sold is proportional to the price of the yearbook, the price of the yearbook went up this year due to an increase in production costs.

The Corona Business Staff was also responsible for selling and distributing the Coronas to the students.

This year, the Corona Editorial Staff had to work extra hard to ready this edition of the Corona. The staff members had to work on their own time since they were unable to work within a study hall or journalism class. The staff includes in its tasks photography, writing copy, drawing layouts, selecting pictures, and proofreading. The Editorial Staff began its work last spring so nothing would be missed that happened after last year's Corona was completed.

Through the combined efforts of the staff, a yearbook is created to give everyone memories of their years at St. Stephens.

Pep Club Encourages Good Sportsmanship

As members of the Pep Club, cheerleaders boost school spirit and morale during pep rallies.

Full of vitality and school spirit, the Pep Club is one of the largest clubs at St. Stephens High. This spirit is shown through school activities and community projects as well as through ballgame support.

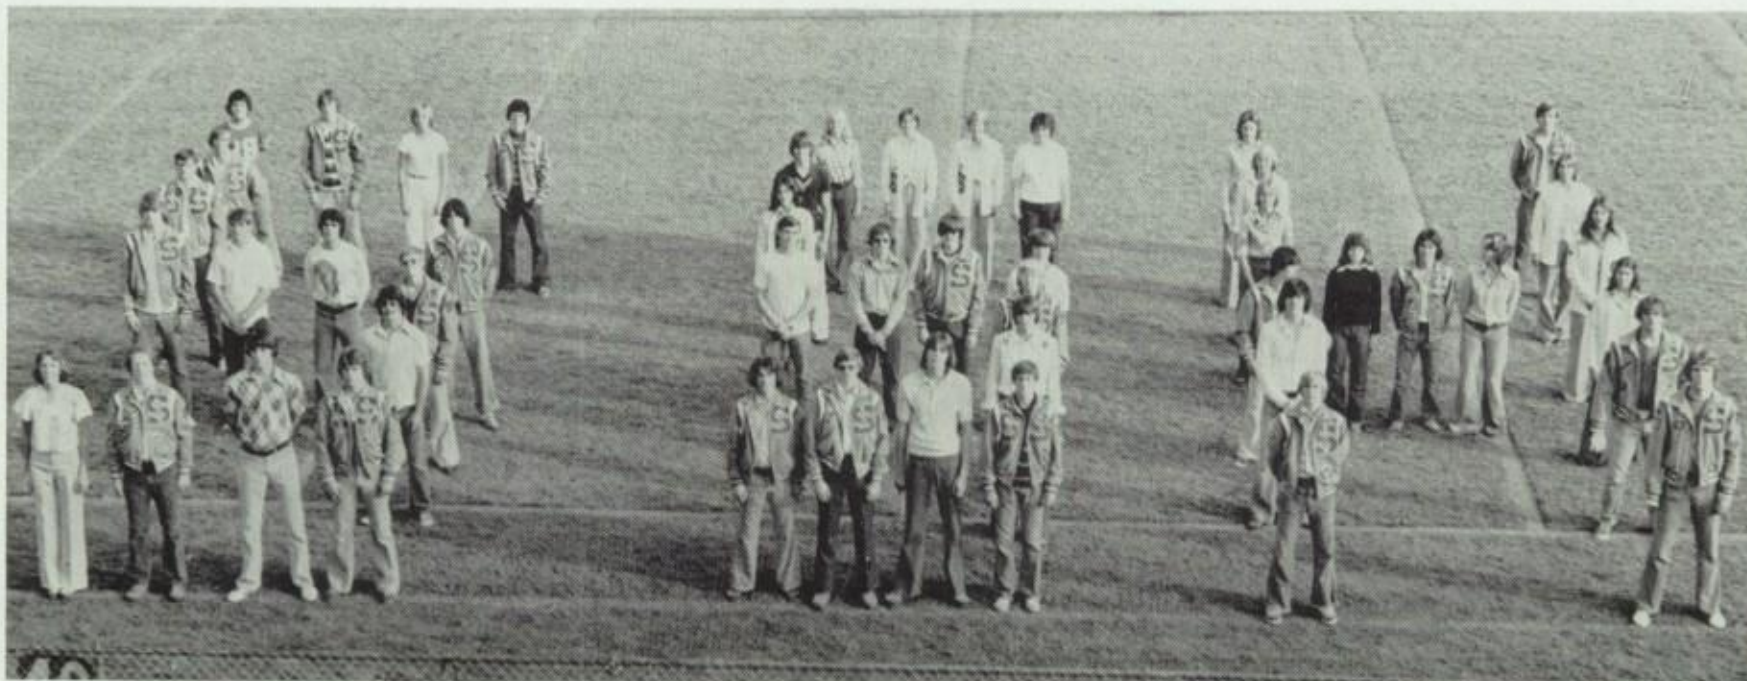

Through its many activities, the Pep Club has encouraged fair play and good sportsmanship among students and athletes.

In addition to school exhibitions, the band played at several colleges and parades. Here is a list of these competitions and concerts: Lees McRae parade and Homecoming game, Lenoir Rhyne Homecoming Parade, Old Soldiers' Reunion Parade in Newton, Carolina Carousel Parade in Charlotte, Dogwood Festival in Statesville, Armed Forces Parade, and competition at Wake Forest, where they were awarded a Division Two rating of excellent. Concerts were also given here and at H. M. Arndt Middle Grade School.

In their second year as majorettes, Tina Parlier and Beth Herman combine twirling routines with hours of practice to add an extra spark to the Marching Indians.

Flag Corp Has Successful First Year

1ST ROW: T. Yount, R. Walker, D. Teague, J. Seitz, K. Lawing, K. Lawing. 2ND ROW: C. Richards, D. Hoffman, J. Turner, D. Hilton, K. Ellis, T. Little.

A new addition to the band this year was the Flag Corp. Comprised of twelve energetic girls, the Flag Corp added color and excitement to the half time programs. The Flag Corp accompanied the band to numerous parades, contests, and other festivities. At the Wake Forest Band Festival, the band front scored 91 out of 100 possible points.

The Flag Corp's success this year was achieved by many hours of hard work and practice after school. The Flag Corp also went to the Mars Hill Band Front Camp this past summer. At camp, Kelly Lawing received an award for the best flag in her group. Donna Teague served as commander of the Flag Corp.

Another important addition to the band this year was the Color Guard. During marching season, the seven members of the Color Guard presented the American, state, and school flags while the band performed the national anthem.

Color Guard squad members began drilling last summer for the performances ahead of them. They also spent many hours after school practicing and perfecting their routines.

The Color Guard, along with the Flag Corp, gave the St. Stephens High School Band a more colorful, professional look.

KNEELING: E. Wilson, K. Hahn, T. Massingill, D. Harris. STANDING: L. Poovey, T. Gragg, R. Dale.

First All-Girl Chorus, a Big Success

New Robes Inspire the "Singing Indians"

The year '75-'76 marks the first time that St. Stephens High School has ever had an all-girl Chorus. It consists of twenty-five students who are divided into four groups: Soprano I, Soprano II, Alto I, and Alto II.

Under the leadership of Terry L. Sidelinker, the Chorus will perform their three annual concerts along with added performances.

Chorus members prepare for another concert rehearsal.

Club Promotes Interest In the School's Library

SEATED: J. Bollinger, Pres.; T. Brown, V-Pres.; H. Burton, Sec.; S. Gilbert, Treas.; L. Andrew, Reporter; Mrs. C. Hollar, Adviser. STANDING, 1ST ROW: Mrs. B. Suarez, Adviser; J. Mullen, R. Bowman, T. Sherrill, J. Davis, T. Tothorow, T. Jones, A. Renfro, S. Hoffman, Mrs. R. Nickerson, Adviser. 2ND ROW: D. Dunmyre, K. Meredith, S. Schuck, D. Mosteller, M. Stock, L. Waugh, K. Huggins, P. Nickerson.

Mrs. Suarez gives Joy Bollinger some valuable pointers about being a good librarian.

The object of the Library Club is to increase pupil interest and participation in the school's library and audio-visual material. The members of this club are students who give up their study halls in order to help the librarians check out books, find materials, catalogue and shelve new books, organize magazines, and in general, keep the library straightened.

Lunchroom Committee Aids Lunchroom Staff

Committee members help lunchroom staff prepare lunch menus.

The Lunchroom Committee is made up of students who represent all of the homerooms at St. Stephens. During the year, the committee met at least once a month. Committee members presented suggestions they had acquired from their homerooms concerning school lunches at these meetings.

These suggestions were compiled and presented to Mrs. Watts, manager of the lunchroom. Mrs. Watts was able to use these ideas to meet the needs and desires of the student body in preparing school lunches.

Bus Drivers Must Be Responsible, Alert

Bus drivers must sign in when they arrive at school, as Chuck Justice is doing here.

Screaming voices, wet weather, and hectic traffic are just a few commonplace occurrences that twenty-five students must put up with during the year. These hardworking students are the bus drivers.

The bus drivers are responsible for safely transporting fellow students to school and for keeping the buses in good condition. Each week, they spend a short amount of time getting rid of trash and excess dirt. Every morning the bus drivers must check the tires, oil, and all signal lights of their buses.

This group of students will never know how much the rest of St. Stephens appreciates and thanks them.

1ST ROW: FROM LEFT: K. Cornwell, S. Lafone, D. Eckard, D. White, M. Webb, R. Davis, R. Gaddy, D. Eggers. 2ND ROW: W. Auton, S. Ward, T. Lail, T. Miller, J. McKinney, C. Justice, D. Ross, K. Niewulis, G. Sipe. 3RD ROW: D. Harmon, D. Killian, D. Turner, J. Stinson, R. Cook, E. Allen, M. Weeks, D. Dixon, B. Hefner, B. Miller.

Sigmon.

FBLA Club members take many business courses in order to prepare for future careers.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization which is comprised of students who are currently taking or have taken a business course. The St. Stephens High Chapter of FBLA works continually to "develop character, prepare for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism" in everyone. The hard-working FBLA members participate in several yearly community projects. By doing so, they attempt to develop responsibility, cooperation, and mutual understanding in everyone.

FHA Club Promotes Skills in Homemaking . . .

The Future Homemakers of America are dedicated to helping students assume their roles in society through home economics education. FHA participates in various projects concentrating in the areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation, and community involvement. Other activities include joint meetings with FHA clubs of surrounding schools. The FHA club is open to any student taking a home economics course.

FHA Club members work on crafts during the Christmas season.

FTA Members Prepare for Careers in Teaching

The Future Teachers of America through practice teaching and paperwork offers valuable experience and insight into the teaching profession. Members prepare for prospective careers by assisting at St. Stephens High and practice teaching in neighboring grammar schools.

At Christmas, the FTA members gave the teachers gifts to show their appreciation; a tea was also given later in the year.

FTA members often have to help other students with homework. Here, Greg Bolick seems to be having real problems which only Cheryl Richards can solve.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

The VICA Club is a very large club comprised of several smaller groups such as ICT, Carpentry and Bricklaying students. This club participates in varied contests both at district and state levels each year. VICA club members receive valuable training and first-hand experience which helps them become better prepared for future careers.

This is only one of the many displays VICA club members prepare for their conventions.

Randy Bolick—Freshman Class President.

As a freshman begins at St. Stephens he encounters many new experiences. Finding classes, getting used to more difficult work and dealing with ridicule from upper-classmen are just a few of the unique problems one will come in contact with. After several weeks the excitement settles down and everyone begins to enjoy his first year. These trying experiences will be remembered forever and looked back on as great fun. At the end of the year most freshmen have matured considerably. They have the foundations for a good future at St. Stephens and will improve our school greatly.

SOPHOMORES

Pam Lail—Sophomore Class President.

On returning from vacation, the sophomore class felt that they knew a little more about what is going on. Sophomores come back to find themselves starting their second year in high school and having to learn a new route to new classes with new teachers and new subjects. For example, something very special most sophomores looked forward to is a foreign language. This year many of them will turn "sweet sixteen" and get their driver's licenses. Sophomores realize that the next two years in high school will be important to them and that there will be many good times to look forward to.

JUNIORS

Tammy Sipe — Junior Class President

Donna Prestwood — Junior Class Secretary

Of all the high school years, the Junior year is one of the ones most people look forward to. There are many activities that take place in the year. In early fall there is the ordering of class rings. In the late fall and early winter is the taking of the PSAT. April brings the hosting of the Junior-Senior Prom. In all, the Junior year is very exciting. As the Juniors advance toward the position of Seniors, they prepare to be the leaders of the student body in 1977 and the community leaders in the future.

SENIORS

Members Of the Class of '76 feel mixed emotions as they graduate. They are happy to leave behind long hours of studying for homework, tests, and exams. It is sad, though, to have to leave close friendships with students and teachers.

A unique honor claimed by this class of Seniors is that it will be graduating in the year of our nation's 200th birthday. For these students, 1976 should be doubly memorable.

As each graduate begins to make plans for his future in the world, he realizes fully that all the effort and hard work will be of much benefit to him. He becomes aware of his indebtedness to the school, and takes time to say "thank you" to St. Stephens.

EDITORS' LAST NOTE

As the Business Managers of the 1976 CORONA, we would like to extend a "thank you" to the local businesses and the many groups and individuals whose support helped finance this yearbook.

We would like to thank everyone who helped on the CORONA Business Staff. These people have helped to make this year's CORONA possible. We would especially like to thank our adviser, Mrs. Carol Haines, for her effort and patience.

We are also grateful to Mrs. Sylvia Hoke, Editorial Staff adviser, and the entire faculty of St. Stephens High School.

You, the students of St. Stephens, deserve a most special thanks. Your participation is what really makes this CORONA. We hope that you enjoy it.

Sylvia D. Hoke

There are many people who have given their time and effort to this Corona. We would like to recognize them. First, we wish to thank our advisers, Mrs. Carol Haines and Mrs. Sylvia Hoke, and the Editorial Staff and Business Staff members who helped us produce this yearbook. We are also grateful for the technical advice provided by Leon Lewis, our Delmar representative. Sincere appreciation goes to James D. Yount, who has gone out of his way many times to supply our photography needs. Finally, we realize the importance of the support of faculty and students in recording the year's events.

In a way, our feelings are summed up by the theme we chose, "Awareness of the Past, Present, and Future." In this year, 1976, we are aware of both the growth of our country over 200 years, and the personal development of the people around us in the past school year. Now, in the present, there are feelings of gratefulness and sadness that the year is almost gone. And, looking ahead, we hope that in the future you will look on this annual as a true book of memories. This is a special year, each one of you is a special person, and we have tried our best to make this a special Corona.

See, projected through time,
For me an audience interminable.
With firm and regular step they wend, they never stop,
Successions of men, Americanos, a hundred millions,
One generation playing its part and passing on,
Another generation playing its part and passing on in its turn,
With faces turn'd sideways or backward towards me to listen,
With eyes retrospective towards me.

—Excerpt from Leaves of Grass,

Jim
I hope I see you
next year, and maybe
I'll manage more than track. Best wishes
and good luck

Mitchell
Jones

Jimmy?
 You are a very nice guy. I wish you all of the happiness
 in the future.
 Alice Deal

Jimmy, you are a nice guy, but you are differently not the best manager. (I am the best in the world. I was paid $ to do my job.) I thought you were a sure winner, but Mr. Stephens agent, but Mr. Conquainally isn't bad. Maybe next year you will do something good.
